Customs inspection on Brunnenstrasse in North Berlin (boundary between the Russian and French sectors). All traffic is stopped in the middle of the street. Just this completely unexpected inspection brings interesting results. Since the inspections and location of inspections change daily and hourly, it is impossible for the drivers make detours.

Combatting the Smuggling of East Zone Goods into West Berlin

There is a trial on every confiscation. Testimony is heard until late at night, sometimes 10 p.m.; confiscation cases are never postponed indefinitely since verdicts are often reached quickly. Often the confiscated articles are returned after the persons concerned pay a fine which, together with the purchase value of the articles, far suppasses the cost of the goods in Westmark - thereby the purpose of teaching a lesson is already served. Next time the persons will rather immediately buy their things in West-Berlin and not take their marks into the Soviet sector.

Customs inspect[illegible] a street connecting the Soviet sector and [illegible]erlin. The customs officials' wide experience with people makes it possible for them quickly know whether they are dealing with "smugglers". Their great politeness is general knowledge, though they do have to be harsh with transgressors.
